

Q: How can I connect with the Student Civic Engagement office while campus is closed?

A: Students can engage with us virtually! Our social media channels will be updated, allowing students to constantly engage with us throughout the semester. Follow us on Instagram and Facebook @GSUCivicEngagement, interact with us on Twitter @GSUCivicEngage. All volunteer events and activities through the University have been cancelled, and any opportunities to serve through third party organizations should be done at the organizations' and the students' discretion.

Q: Will federal work study with community partners be affected by the closure?

A: Yes! Please contact Paul Briscoe for all federal work-study community related matters and concerns at pbriscoe@gsu.edu.

Q: Will the Panther's Pantry be open during the school closure?

A: No, The Panther's Pantries on both Atlanta and Perimeter Campuses are closed until further notice. For questions and concerns please contact Byron Jones, bjones164@gsu.edu, for the Atlanta Pantry and JP Peters, jpeters14@gsu.edu, for the Perimeter Pantries.

Q: Where can I go for assistance since the Panther's Pantry location are closed?

A: Check out some other Atlanta Community Food Bank Partner Agencies while the Panther's Pantry is closed. Be sure to call ahead to see if an agency will be open.
